محتوى المحاضرة

In this unit you will learn about:

Process paragraphs

A process paragraph is a description of how to do something. It explains the steps you need to follow to complete an activity. Read this recipe and do the exercise below.

Mike's Brown Rice and Vegetable

Brown rice and vegetables is a simple and delicious meal to make. First, cook the rice, following the directions on the packet. Then, cut the vegetables into one-inch pieces. Next, heat the oil, chili sauce, and garlic in a frying pan. After that, add the vegetables and fry them until they are soft, but still a little bit crunchy. Now it's time to stir in the cooked rice. After stirring the rice and vegetables together, add salt and pepper to your own test. Finally, put the rice on the vegetables into the large bowl and serve it with freshly chopped tomatoes and spring onions on top. Now you are ready to enjoy your delicious brown rice and vegetable!

what are Transitions?

Transitions are words that connect the steps in a paragraph transition word phrases show the relationship between the idea in a paragraph. They are not used between every sentence, but are used often enough to make the reader clear. Here are some common transition words and phrases that show time order or the order of steps such as: next, finally, at the beginning , first...etc

Order the steps to form a process paragraph. Write 1 next to the first step, 2 for the second step, and so on.
